KNOW ABOUT FERRAGAMO

Made in Italy, designed for the world.

The essence of Ferragamo.

Since 1927, Ferragamo has elevated Made in Italy as a synonym for luxury and excellence. Each creation is born from the perfect balance between artisanal tradition and contemporary vision: innovation that respects heritage while always looking forward.

More than a brand, Ferragamo is a universal language of style. Luxury, refined elegance, and creativity merge with materials of the highest quality, giving life to iconic yet modern pieces.

Each product beats with the original spirit of Salvatore Ferragamo: timeless, bold, and deeply Italian.

Maximilian Davis

The creations of Maximilian Davis reflect a visual language where emotion, craftsmanship, and modernity converge.

HUG BAG

From sculpted pumps to the iconic Hug bag, from the refinement of silk to relaxed tailoring and handcrafted Tramezza shoes, each piece tells a precise and intentional story.

CONTEMPORARY ELEGANCE

At the heart of the collection, the legendary wedges from 1937 patented by Salvatore Ferragamo reemerge today with an innovative spirit, reaffirming the avant-garde strength of the collection.

Sculptural proportions, refined textures, and light in every detail: the essence of Ferragamo, intensely modern.

THE VALUE OF CRAFTSMANSHIP AT FERRAGAMO

TRADITION CRAFTED BY EXPERT HANDS

Every Ferragamo creation arises from a unique convergence of artisanal dedication, contemporary technical precision, and the living legacy of Salvatore Ferragamo. Its workshops continue to practice techniques developed since the earliest days of the Maison, where leather is worked with patience and passion, combining precise finishes with lasting excellence.

BALLERINA FERRAGAMO

art in every step

Luxury that walks with history.

Since 1954, each pair of Ballerinas is born from more than 200 meticulous steps a dance between tradition and modern precision in the ateliers of Florence. This timeless silhouette, conceived by Salvatore Ferragamo and reinvented decades later, remains a symbol of elegance that is felt as much as it is seen.

The eternal icon

From Audrey Hepburn to today, Ballerinas have been synonymous with effortless elegance. Handcrafted in Florence, through more than 200 artisanal steps, they continue to be reinvented season after season without losing their essence: comfort, sophistication, and timelessness.

FIAMMA

Inner light, modern sensuality

Fiamma, the first women's fragrance under the creative direction of Maximilian Davis, is an ode to inner strength, confidence, and luminous sensuality.

TAILORING AS IDENTITY

Ferragamo reaffirmed its historic connection with Hollywood glamour and self-expression through fashion at the 2025 Met Gala, played out under the theme Superfine: Tailoring Black Style, centered on Black dandyism as a form of subversion and visual elegance.

As Creative Director since 2022, Davis fuses classical Italian craftsmanship with a contemporary aesthetic. For this evening, he reinterpreted tailoring as a powerful language of culture, identity, and personality, creating silhouettes that empower their wearers.

A precise combination of tradition, culture, and design. Each look from the bold red of Elssesser to the refinement of Stanfield reinterprets Ferragamo's heritage as a language of empowerment and elegance.
